

Members emeritus of the Permanent Editorial Board

Don Arendt, Ph.D. Dr. Arendt specialized in aviation risk management, human factors, and systems engineering, and was recognized widely as a thought leader within the FAA where he developed policy and guidance, training requirements and implementation SMS processes for aviation service providers. He was a Gold Seal Flight Instructor.

Dale DeRemer, Ph.D., ATP. Dr. DeRemer was Prof. Emeritus, U. of North Dakota. He is known as the father of the SEAWINGS national FAA safety program. He has authored many articles and books on aviation, particularly seaplane safety. With 20,000+ flight hours, he was a Gold Seal Flight Instructor, NAFI Master CFI, and the 1998 SPA Seaplane Pilot of the Year.

Jim Lauerman, ATP. Mr. Lauerman served as President of Avemco and previously its Chief Underwriting Officer. Prior thereto, he worked at USSIG where he got his start in the insurance industry. He also owned a flight school and acted as a chief flight instructor and chief pilot.

Deonna Neal, Ph.D., CFI. Dr. Neal's PhD is in ethics. She has taught professional ethics at both civilian and military institutions, and was co-investigator for the Airman Education and Research Initiative and DARPA-sponsored project: Mitigating Operator-Induced Mishaps: Prof. Ed., Moral Neurophysiology and Results-Based Assessment published in the Jour. of Character and Leadership Integration (Winter 2017), entitled Failure Predicts Success. She is a glider CFI-G and aviation enthusiast.

Mike Radomsky, CFII. Mr. Radomsky learned to fly in his native South Africa. Since his retirement from his computer tech. company, he satisfies his passion for flying by volunteering to various aviation bodies. He was a founder of the Cirrus Owners and Pilots Assn, and he owns a Cirrus SR22. He also provides both air and ground instruction, focusing on Emergency Procedures which he teaches in his full motion Cirrus simulator in Las Vegas.

Josh Smith, CFI. Mr. Smith manages the Oakland Campus of one the largest Part 147 schools in the USA. He was previously the Chief Pilot of Advanced Flyers, Palo Alto, Cal. Prior thereto, he managed the largest non-profit flying club in the world and served as its Chief Pilot. Josh comes from a family of pilots. He started flying when a child, has been an active flight instructor for more than 13 years, and teaches at Flying Particles in Livermore, CA.

Thomas Turner, ATP, CFI. An active flight instructed for 34 years, Mr. Turner is Exec. Dir. of the American Bonanza Society Air Safety Foundation. He also runs Mastery Flight Training, Inc. and is best known for his FLYING LESSONS Weekly blog. He holds a MS in Aviation Safety, has authored 6 books and over 1500 articles on flying safety and pilot techniques. He was the 2008 FAA Central Region Flight Instructor of the Year and 2010 National FAA Safety Team Representative of the Year. In 2015 Tom was inducted into the Flight Instructor Hall of Fame.